MEN'S OUTFITTERS.

Mowers and Horse Rakes.

The "Canadian New Model Mower," manufactured by us for some years past and improved for 1892, is offered this season as a perfect machine, with front cut, perfect tilling and lifting arrangement, simple and compact gearing, combining strength and lightness of draft, and perfect control by the driver.

We invite inspection of this machine.

We challenge competition.

The new Model Mower is the peer of any Mower in the market, and therefore we say to the farmers of this district: "Why go abroad for an article you may have at your own doors? Avoid useless trouble in getting repairs. Patronize home industry and circulate your money in these counties. Our prices are the lowest." Our terms are most reasonable

We are turning out this season the usual number of our celebrated "Ithaca Hand-Dump," and "Centennial Self-Dump Horse Rakes." We think our reputation in this line for furnishing an A 1 article is well enough established by our twenty years manufacture of Horse Rakes. If you wish a first-class article in this line we can supply you at prices which cannot be beaten. A few of those celebrated "Iron Duke" Corn Cultivators are yet unsold, which will be disposed of at bottom figures to make room for other implements.

Repairs for implements always on hand.

Sections for mowers and Reaper Knives, 10 cts.

Very best quality of Machine Oil, 60c. per gallon.

We want your patronage and can give you satisfaction.

Richard Chamberlain Also Among the Slain—"Tay Pay" and "Lobby" Elected—Some Desperate Fights—Unionists and Their Opponents Come to Blows at Peterborough While Parnellites are Belabored in Ireland—An Attempt to Wreck a Train Frustrated.

LONDON, July, 6.—The vote yesterday, when polling took place in 23 Metropolitan boroughs, may be accepted as a fair estimate of what the general voice of the country will be. At dissolution the Conservatives represented 17 of the 23 seats. At the close of the polls last night the result was precisely the same. There were gains and losses to be sure, but they were exactly equal—seven on each side and the Conservatives are therefore numerically as strong in the London districts as they were with the exception of the eight seats lost on Monday. These figures tell the tale:

Number of members elected.....	100
Conservatives.....	89
Liberal-Unionists.....	8
Liberals.....	63
McCarthyites.....	1

There is deep disappointment among the Liberals here over the results. It is evident that the success of the Radical element in the County Council elections has not involved desertion of the Conservative ranks in the general election.

If the Liberals are to win they have, in view of yesterday's results, an arduous task before them for the two or three remaining days of the borough elections.

Unopposed.

A FREE TRIP TO PARIS

And a Valuable and Handsome Prize will be Given Free to Everyone.

The publishers of THE LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY will give a first-class cabin passage to Paris, France, and return, with all expenses for a six weeks' sojourn in that city or its equivalent in cash, not to exceed $400 to the person sending them the largest number of words of not less than four letters each constructed from letters contained in the three words LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY. To the person sending next to the largest list will be given an ELEPHANT TIGHT PLANO (valued at $300). To the person sending the third largest list will be given a PONY, CART and HARNESS complete (valued at $150). To the person sending the fourth largest list will be given a PRIZE of $100 in cash. A committee consisting of five teachers from the public schools of Toronto will be invited to select the winners. Prizes will be awarded in order of merit, three Ladies' Gold Watches, three Ladies' Gold Silver watches, two French Music Boxes, two complete China Dinner Sets (consisting of over 60 pieces each), three Silk Dress Patterns and one French Mantel Clock.

A HANDSOME PRIZE OF VALUE will be given to EVERY PERSON who sends in one hundred words or over in this our last Prize Word Competition.

RULES—1. Lists are to contain English and Anglicised words ONLY of not less than four letters each. 2. No letter can be used in the construction of any word more times than it appears in LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY. 3. Words having more than one meaning, but spelled the same, can be used but once. 4. Names of places and persons are barred. 5. Words will be allowed in either singular or plural, but not in both numbers, and in one tense only. 6. Prefixes and suffixes are not allowed by themselves, but can be used in the construction of a complete word. 7. The main part ONLY of Worcester's or Webster's Dictionaries may be used as the authority. Each list must contain name of person sending same, with full postoffice address and number of words contained therein, and be accompanied by fifty cents for a two months' trial subscription to THE LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY. Canada's high-class illustrated newspaper for ladies. The subscription price of fifty cents must accompany list of words. Do not send in separate enclosure. If two or more tie on the largest list, the complete number of words intended for the competition must be forwarded at one time. No alterations or additions to the list can be made after it has been sent to us. On account of the extra work involved in these competitions it is impossible for the publishers to enter into personal correspondence concerning the competition or rules thereof. All lists must be mailed on or before September 1st, 1892. The new homes, and every prize-winner must subscribe for a year before their prize is forwarded. There will be no charge made for boxing and packing prizes. Present subscribers can enter this competition only by enclosing fifty cents for a two months' trial subscription, which will be sent to any address desired. Prizes awarded in the United States will be forwarded free of customs duty. The publishers desire to announce to the public that this will positively be their last word competition. Prizes will be awarded September 10, 1892, and names and addresses of winners will be published in our publication. Address: LADIES' PICTORIAL COMPANY, TORONTO, CANADA.

(Conservative) in the Isle of Thanet division of Kent. Upon being asked why he, an Irishman and a Catholic, did not follow in the footsteps of his father Mr. O'Connell replied: "It is as an Irish Catholic that I vote for a Conservative. I have seen during the past six years the country wisely governed. Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule scheme would be most disastrous to Ireland."

When a Woman Will, She Will.

Col. Cornwall's West, Unionist candidate in Denbighshire, Wales, is being assisted in his canvass by his wife, the noted beauty. Mrs. West attempted to day to address a meeting which had howled her husband down. For a moment there were cries of "Let her speak," but the silence which ensued was brief. The disorder being renewed Mrs. West lost her temper and declared that in her native country, Ireland, the men were too manly to prevent a woman from championing a public cause. The hubbub increased, but Mrs. West nothing daunted, made her way to a platform where a rival orator was addressing a crowd and began an argument with him. He was impolite enough to shake his fist in her face, and the crowd was so threatening that Mrs. West finally retired to the platform provided for the orators of her husband's party.

Immediately upon the announcement of the victory of Sydney Herbert, the Conservative candidate in the Croydon district, yesterday, a well known Radical named Jordan went to his shop and committed suicide by hanging himself.

Sore Heads in Erin.

CORK, July 6.—William O'Brien, who was struck on the head with a stone yesterday as he was returning from a political meeting, passed an uneasy night. The physicians in attendance apprehend that his condition will become worse. His assailant, a laborer named John Sheehan, has been arrested.

Mr. William O'Brien's condition shows no improvement last evening. His face is much swollen, and the attending doctors fear that erysipelas may supervene. The patient is suffering considerably and is unable to eat. Redmond and Horgan, the Parnellite candidates, are severely condemned for the outrage.

An attempt was made Tuesday to wreck a special train upon which were 300 members of the Parnellite branch of the Irish party en route to Lusk, County Clare, to attend a political meeting to be held there. A friendly warning given to the engineer alone averted a catastrophe.

He has suggested Home Rule for Ireland on the colonial model, but colonies are empowered to make tariffs, and unless Ireland is allowed to do the same this solution of the problem will not be accepted as final and Mr. Gladstone will be in a dilemma."

Balfour at Manchester.

Mr. Balfour made three speeches in Manchester to-day. In criticising the utterances of Mr. Gladstone he remarked that Mr. Gladstone had said he saw no objection to the Linton-Simmons negotiations. Mr. Gladstone himself when in office was in close diplomatic correspondence with the Pope, to whom was communicated the views of the English Cabinet on every sort of question, civil and religious. Mr. Balfour charged Mr. Gladstone with distorting history when he compared Home Rule to the star of promise. Home Rule, he said, was really like a gaseous meteor, destined to vanish after a brief but brilliant flourish.

The Rev. Newman Hall publishes in The London Times to-day the records contained in his diary of two conversations which he had with John Bright in May, 1887, in which Mr. Bright denounced Mr. Gladstone's espousal of Home Rule.

The Unionist press accuses the Liberal party of keeping the Home Rule question in the background, but it admits that Mr. Gladstone has not adopted this course, and that he rather facilitates the task of the Unionists by stating all the difficulties which stand in the way of obtaining Home Rule without giving his followers the slightest idea how to meet them.

LONDON, July 6.—Lord George Hamilton said to his electors that unless Great Britain was prepared to retaliate upon those nations having recourse to protection for the express purpose of shutting out English goods she would soon find herself deprived of her foreign markets.

Mr. Perrault protests in a letter against the description of Quebec by a correspondent to The Times as an "ignorant, priest-ridden country" and against other statements of the same character, which, he says, have been published with a view to influencing the Protestant vote on the Irish question. He regrets that such a paltry object should suffice to induce the maligning of a country which had twice preserved the Dominion to the British crown.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

Centreville.

Mr. James Lockhead has the contract for the erection of a new shed at the Methodist church.

Owing to the very wet evening last Sabbath the flower service will be held next Sabbath July 10th, at 10.30 a.m. the pastor Rev. Mr. Allan will conduct the service. The public are cordially invited to see what Centreville can do in the way of flowers and bouquets.

Enterprise.

A new side walk has been laid up main street.

On Sunday last the Methodist church was beautifully decorated with all kinds of plants and flowers, and the pastor Rev. Allan delivered a well prepared sermon suitable for the occasion.

Mr. Ernest Allan, of Kingston and youngest son of Rev. H. I. Allen is confined to the house with a slight attack of fever. We are pleased to learn that he is on the mend.

Pictou.

The steam dredge Nipissing has done several days dredging along the wharves here. The refuse is dumped in the bay outside the harbor.

10,360 baskets of berries were shipped one day last week on the Hero for Kingston. The largest shipment was that of Walace Woodrow, 3,672; and John Church had 1600. The rest were small lots.

Mr. E. C. Wilson, science master at Mountain Institute, Chappaqua, N. Y., has returned to his home at Bloomfield for the summer holidays.

The number of candidates who tried the high school entrance examinations here last week were 128 and at Amherstburgh 54; total, 182.

Miss Alberta Wilson is home at Bloomfield, from Washington, D. C., for the summer vacation.

Mr. Angus McGowan, took his departure last week for his home at Medford, Wisconsin, after a two months visit to his parents in Pictou and his sister in Ottawa.

Recently while a young man from Napanee was stopping in our town over Sunday found the day rather hot and went down to the steamboat dock where he took a bath. The bath proved a rather longer one than he expected for while he was enjoying himself in the water a couple of young ladies drove down to the dock and the young man after waiting for over half an hour in the water swam to a boat house near by and, as naked as nature, begged of some boys to get his clothes.

E. S. Hicks, formerly of the Standard bank, Pictou, has accepted a responsible position with the Minnesota trust and loan company at Minneapolis.

West plain.

Our school is closed for the summer holidays and we miss our teacher's pleasant smile and cheerful greeting as she passes on her way to and from school. But, such is life, the best friends must part.

Mr. M. W. Pringle, who received several severe cuts and bruises by falling down stairs, is we are pleased to say, getting quite smart again.

Mrs. H. Bradshaw, while gathering eggs in the barn a few days ago, fell from one of the mows and hurt herself very badly. She is getting better very slowly.

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of our young and esteemed friend Mrs. Robert McFarland who died on Monday night at the early age of twenty seven years, and two months. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Davis, of West Plain. She was taken ill about six months ago with La Grippe which developed into decline. She has been a great sufferer but always cheerful and patient. About three weeks ago she expressed a wish to visit the home of her childhood and her husband, who was untiring in his kind attention to her brought her home, and it was hoped by many of her friends that she would recover. Last Monday evening she took a sudden change and

TOWN COUNCIL.

JULY 4th, 1892.

Council met at 8 o'clock, the Mayor in the chair. Present, Councillors Stevens, Ward, Burns, Lowry, McAllister, Warner, Carson, Joy, Leonard and Meng.

A letter was read from the agent of Sir Richard Cartwright offering two acres of land for a dead animal cemetery for the sum of $250.—Ordered filed for future reference. Some discussion arose as to price and so forth; but it seemed to be the opinion of most of the council that no other such liberal offer could be got. The Mayor said it was the only feasible spot of land that could be secured.

Mr. A. F. Paul again appeared re taxes of Mechanics Institute, saying that an agreement was made between Mr. Harshaw and the council that the taxes were to be paid by the Institute, and remitted by the council.

Messrs. Warner and Stevens moved that a grant of $20 be made to the Institute in remission of taxes.

Moved in amendment by Couns. Ward and Leonard that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee with power to act. The original motion was carried.

A letter was read from a company wanting to sell the corporation an Angle crematory for dead animals and garbage.—Referred to the Poor and Sanitary Committee.

A letter was read from W. G. Wilson as to procedure in constructing the proposed new sewer.—Ordered laid on the table.

A letter was read from Mr. A. L. Morden as to drain near Mr. Lloyd's, saying the water must be taken away.—Ordered laid on the table until the Street Committee report.

Mr. Perry submitted specifications re new sewer.—Ordered laid on the table for use of Street Committee.

Mr. Card asked the privilege of breaking stone for the corporation.—Granted.

The treasurer submitted a statement of finances.—Ordered returned for explanation.

The Street Committee reported recommending that the petition of Mr. Lloyd re drain be granted.

There was a lively discussion over this report, many councillors expressing their ideas on the matter. Mr. Lowry, chairman of the Street Committee, said he had looked over the land, and he was sure the town had to take away the water complained of. The cheapest way to do so was to give Mr. Lloyd the $20, the work to be done under the supervision of the Street Committee.

The Street Committee reported an expenditure of $100.37 for the month and $613.40 for the year so far.—Report adopted.

Mr. McAllister asked if it was the intention of the street committee to keep Mr. Post permanently. Mr. Meng thought a good deal of Mr. Post's time was wasted.

Mr. Carson complained that the ditches were being filled with gravel on Dundas street.

Mr. Lowry said it was wrong to do so with the gravel. He had not had time to see to the matter, but would do so.

Mr. Bennett was heard as to water lying opposite his door, which could not get away. Referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

The Fire, Water and Gas Committee's report was presented and adopted.

The rent of the fire alarm, $100, for four months was ordered paid.

Reports of the Market and Town Property Committee were received and adopted.

Reports of the Poor and Sanitary and Police Committees were received and adopted. The committee also reported re Police Magistrate's account for commitments.—Ordered paid.

Dr. Ward reported as to East Street sewer and the Water Works Company, submitting draft contract received from said company, also as to reply to the same, being a contract drawn by the town, and which he proposed to submit to the Water Works Company for their approval. The contract was ordered signed and sealed and sent to the company for execution by them.

Mr. Warner said he gave notice some time ago as to the introduction of a by-law to regulate the payment of taxes. He did not think a half of the citizens should

Mr. Plunkett, the Parnellite candidate for the Middle Division of Tyrone, accompanied by Mr. Killen, went to the chapel at Lough Macrory yesterday. Father Murphy, the priest who conducted the services, denounced Mr. Plunkett, saying that he would not be allowed to spread his blackguardism there. Mr. Plunkett and his companions thereupon withdrew to the chapel yard. The people, incited by the priest, rushed out of the chapel and savagely maltreated them. The entire party were kicked and pelted with stones and other missiles. Mr. Plunkett was badly hurt about the head and face. Mr. Killen was thrown to the ground, and while some of the crowd were mauling him, Father Murphy called to them not to kill him. The Parnellites finally succeeded in escaping from the mob.

E. Leamy, the Parnellite candidate for the East Division of Waterford, and a party of his supporters were attacked by a number of McCarthyites at Kilmacthomas to-day, and a desperate fight occurred between the two factions, during which many of the contestants were seriously injured.

A Unionist meeting held at Peterborough yesterday was broken up and a free fight ensued, during which the benches and chairs were smashed and the hall in which the meeting was being held was much damaged. Several persons were more or less severely injured.

After the Cruel War is Over.

DUBLIN, July 6.—The Irish-American commission which arrived here a few days ago for the purpose of trying to effect a peaceful settlement of the differences existing between the warring Irish factions wrote to Justin McCarthy proposing an interview between him and John Redmond with a view to negotiations looking to the establishment of peace.

Mr. McCarthy replied to the commission to-day that he must consult with the members of his party on the subject.

It is known that the anti-Parnellites are utterly opposed to considering the question until after the elections are over and that the Parnellites are also unwilling to discuss the matter at present.

The commission say that they do not despair of smoothing matters after the elections have taken place.

The Battle of the Giants.

LONDON, July 6.—Mr. Gladstone addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting at Dalkeith yesterday. In the course of his speech he said that if Scotland on mature deliberation wanted Home Rule for herself she would get it as her right, but, he added, the Irish question leads Scottish nationalization. The Scottish national grievance was that whenever there was an anti-Liberal majority in Parliament the vote of Scotland was disregarded.

A Vote of Want of Confidence.

Mr. Gladstone, in an election address in Stow, Edinburghshire, declared that when, in 1879, he anticipated a victory in the then coming election his anticipation was more than realized. He believed that the same thing was going to happen now.

Parliament, he claimed, would never be able to attend to the business of the country until the Irish question was settled. The Liberals would have to repair all the present Government's work.

During the proceedings of the meeting a vote of want of confidence in Mr. Gladstone was proposed on account of his action in regard to the Scotch disestablishment question.

Mr. Gladstone in explaining his position in the matter said it was impossible for him to act otherwise than he had done without trampling the national opinion of Scotland under the feet of England.

Eight Hour Day Premature.

Mr. Gladstone also attended a meeting in Gorebridge and delivered an address, in which he emphasized the necessity for a thorough reform of the land laws. He also said that the demand for a universal working day of 8 hours was premature, but that the demand of the miners for an eight-hour day was more hopeful, because if the men were practically unanimous on the question no employers' objections should prevent them from attaining the end which they sought. Where a district was unanimous in favor of the establishment of a working day of eight hours he believed that local option should prevail, although he was not confident of the success of the movement.

Chamberlain on Gladstone.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain in a speech at Walsall to-day, said: "Mr. Gladstone never proposed measures for the benefit of working people until he required their votes. Minard's Liniment cures Dismaster.

TORONTO'S ISLAND FREAK.

Confesses That He Came From Ancaster He's Sent Home.

TORONTO, July 6.—The Island freak has made a full confession and his name is William D. Adams, a son of Samuel Joseph Adams, a market gardener and small woolen manufacturer, living in Stroud-lane, off the stone road, between Dundas and Hamilton, in the township of Ancaster. He admits that he came to Toronto voluntarily, went out to the sandbar and tied himself in the position in which he was found. He says he did it for notoriety. His father was brought down last night and the magistrate granted the boy's discharge this morning. He has gone home in charge of his father.

It Costs Less than a Dozen of Ordinary Dress Buttons.

Buying new dresses at each season is to many ladies a serious and important matter for the reason that all women are not the wives and daughters of wealthy men. Fashion however, demands that the new dress must be forthcoming to suit the season; and thousands of women who really cannot afford the money are compelled to obey fashion's imperious commands, in order to uphold their status in society. We are an extravagant people, and must change our mode of living, if we wish to be happy, prosperous and independent of others. Let us show the ladies how to do this.

It is a recognized fact, that no more fashionable or becoming dress in color and appearance can be worn to-day by ladies, than a Black dress. A Black dress looks well upon any occasion, and under all circumstances, for young and old.

In order to dress well and cheaply, it is only necessary for a lady to take one of her colored wool dress, no matter how old, dingy and faded it may be; and with the aid of one or two packages of Fast Black Diamond Dye for Wool, she can transform the old and cast-off garment into a thing of beauty and utility, for less money than a dozen of ordinary dress buttons would cost.

With this magnificent, rich and brilliant Fast Black Diamond Dye, the work of dyeing is rendered easy, light and quick; and the results are invariably satisfactory. No other dyes can give the same satisfaction and pleasure; only the Diamond can give that perfect and rich tone of Black, so much looked for.

Every Department of the Diamond Dye establishment is now being worked to its utmost capacity to supply the increasing demand.

That novel and interesting "Diamond Dye Competition" is the talk of the ladies all over Canada; and the number of ladies who are entering as competitors is increasing every day.

The Competition being free to all ladies who wish to show their work, and the prizes so very liberal, are certainly weighty inducements for all wives, mothers and daughters to take a part in the great work.

The Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, will send, post free to any address in the Dominion, a book explaining the scheme, and giving full particulars.

—Archbishop Cleary will, this week, have a circular issued and distributed throughout the diocese asking for contributions to assist in the election of the Home Rule candidates in Ireland. The other Archbishops of the Province are pursuing the same course. Already subscriptions have been received.—Kingston News.

—Belleville will likely hold a race-meeting during July.

—During the past eleven months ending May 31, 1892, the weight of freight carried over the Bay of Quinte Railway was 115,000 tons; passengers, 50,300. The freight mentioned is equal to about 9,580 carloads of twelve tons each, or 871 cars per month, or 34 cars per each week day. About 4,573 passengers have been carried each month, or 176 each day.

day evening she took a sudden change and died about eleven o'clock. She was of a kind genial disposition and her warm loving manner won her many firm friends who deeply regret her early death. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn the loss of kind mother and true, loving wife. Her funeral, which took place from the home of her childhood on Wednesday July 6th, was largely attended by sorrowing friends and relatives.

Death is sad at any time but especially so when we see the young cut down in the flower of their youth. We will miss our dear friend whose cheerful smile was like sunshine in darkness. Yet we can say:—

Happy soul thy days are ended
All thy mourning days below,
Go by Angel hands attended
To the sight of Jesus go.

Her husband and friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

What makes it much sadder her young husband is in very poor health and it is feared that he will not survive the sad affliction. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Atkinson the new incumbent of the English church in Selby Parish.

Morven.

Seeing that your last correspondent had left for parts, well, not altogether unknown to us, I thought I would pen you a few items.

We have had a few drops of rain lately but the weather is fine this week so far. Haying is all the rage at present and if the weather remains fine through next week most of the hay will be housed.

Mr. Geo. Robinson, our enterprising cheese maker has erected a curing-room at the rear of the old one. I understand however he does not intend using it for curing cheese but pork, to feed the boys on, I suppose. The atmosphere about the factory continues the same and now Walter has fallen a prey to that rather strange disease. Steward says it is too late in the season to make amends now, so I guess you will have to grin and bear it, Walter.

Mrs. (Rev.) McMullen arrived on Wednesday last week. Her sister is staying with her.

Mr. Hill, of Toronto is visiting his cousin, Miss Ada Coombes.

The Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival given by the Ladies' Aid last Wednesday evening was a grand success. The day was rather uninviting, but the evening turned out fine and a goodly number took advantage of the beautiful evening to come out and enjoy themselves. Proceeds amounted to fifty dollars.

By the way, what happened the educated young man that night? Was he so struck with a "Mallet" that he had to see a doctor about it?

School closed on Wednesday of last week. Among those who were successful at the promotion examination held here were Geo. Frailek and May Brandon. George stood at the head of the list of those who wrote here. Rosa Burley was at Napanee last week writing on the entrance examination. We wish you success Rosa.

Two loads of the Christian Endeavor Society of this place attended a meeting of the Ernestown Local Union on Monday evening of this week. They had an enjoyable evening and speak highly of the hospitality shown them by the Odessa friends. It was too bad Ira you could not go. But then I heard you had good company where you were. The other two will have to stay at home next time and let you go. What happened to the fellow who lost his hat and had to walk part way home?

We noticed Mr. G. D. Grant's smiling face around our village last week. Annie can you tell us why he carries such a beaming countenance?

Mr. Marshall Rombough is home again. Morven seems to have some attraction for him still.

—The steam yacht Eva made a run on Friday and Saturday last to Glenora with pleasure parties.

—Hood's Sarsaparilla absolutely cures all diseases caused by impure blood and it builds up the whole system.

—Mrs. Geddes, of Napanee, returned to her home on Saturday after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Losee, East Lake.—Times.

—Ask your druggist for Dr. August Koenig's Hamburg drops. 22 y.

—Apple dealers should see that the barrels they use are made up to the standard of 30 inches, which the law requires. Apple barrels below this standard are liable to be confiscated by the inspectors.

—For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

not think one half of the citizens should pay taxes promptly, and the other half take six or eight months. He proposed fixing a date for payment of taxes, and then charging one per cent per month for taxes in arrears.

Mr. Warner was authorized to get A. L. Morden's opinion as to such a by-law, and to get the by-law drawn up for submission to the council. Also to obtain opinion as to payment of taxes to the treasurer and save collectors fees, the same to be embodied in the by-law if practicable. It was understood Mr. Warner was to introduce the by-law as soon as possible.

$25 was ordered paid to the Poor and Sanitary Committee.

On motion of Mr. Warner the Street Committee were authorized to advertise in each of the town papers for tenders for the construction of the East street sewer, according to specifications. Tenders to be opened at a meeting of this council.

Councillor Burns moved that the Clerk get the price of tile from the companies making the same.

On motion it was resolved to put down twelve inch tile.

Mr. Lowry moved, seconded by Mr. Warner that Mr. Rudd Perry be employed to superintend the construction of the sewer for a remuneration of $100.—Carried.

The time for the return of the collector's roll was extended to next meeting.

"August Flower"

"I have been afflicted with biliousness, and constipation, for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took it according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold your August Flower—it has given me a new lease of life, which before was a burden. Such a medicine is a benediction to humanity, and its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made known to everyone suffering with dyspepsia or biliousness."

more Gladstone will reach the end of the first century of his existence, if he live through these few years, and then, if he still in good humor, he will start out on the second century of his life. It is to be presumed that he will not surrender his political leadership; that he will hold on to the Liberal party; that he will continue to stir up the popular interest in the Irish question; that he will at every Parliamentary election ask the Midlothian electors to return him to his seat; that he will maintain his classical studies and preserve order at Hawarden. The prospect is alluring and the world will view his career with pleasure. It is sixty years since he first entered Parliament, and, the English people have had him before them through all these years, which, according to Dr Clark, may be merely preliminary to a hundred years more of juggling away. He has seen three generations of Englishmen since he came into the world, and he has a chance of seeing yet three more. There are two things which lead us to doubt that Gladstone will live two hundred years. We do not hear all the time of his chopping trees now in the old style, and this would seem to show that his physical powers are less demonstrative than they used to be, which is a bad sign. Again we do not hear so much from him nowadays about Homer as we heard in other times, and this would seem to show that his mental powers are less demonstrative than they used to be, which is one more bad sign. Yet, on the other hand, we hear of his tramping around on foot, and we also know that he keeps up his reputation as the most tremendous speechmaker of the age. We must, therefore, refrain from giving any decided opinion about his prospects of life. We hope that Mr Gladstone will live three hundred years, if he desires to live so long, and we trust that in the year 2100 he will be as happy as he was in the year 1809.

TO INCREASE THE INDEMNITY. An impression prevails in political circles that next week will see a proposition introduced by the government to increase the sessional indemnity to $1,500, the pressure brought to bear having forced Mr. Foster to yield to the demands of the hungry ones. The Liberals will oppose any such proposal.

THE RESULT IN PONTIAC.

Mr. Thomas Murray, who was defeated in Pontiac does not feel the least dispirited over his defeat. He attributes Mr. Bryson's election altogether to the bonus question, the operations of the bribery brigade, and the stuffing of the electoral lists. Mr. Murray polled over two hundred votes more than he did at the general election. What the people of Pontiac want to know now is whether Mr. Bryson is going to get for them the price they were promised for electing him, and the government does not seem inclined to pay that price.

BLAKE'S ARRIVAL.

Moville, July 4.—An immense reception awaited the arrival of the Allan liner Parisian which reached here today. The Hon. Edward Blake, accompanied by his son, bid an affectionate farewell to the thousands and more souls with whom he had safely crossed the Atlantic, and when he stepped on board the tender, en route for Londonderry, he was received with shouts of farewell and God-speed from his fellow-voyagers. The Irish Nationalist party sent a deputation down to meet the distinguished Canadian and welcomed him to Hibernian soil with open arms. The greeting was a most affecting one for Edward Blake, who wrung each of his Irish compatriots warmly by the hand in acknowledgment of their welcome. Even in Moville the signs of a bitter political struggle were evident. But Mr. Blake almost immediately

DR WILDE is one of the chiefs of Toronto Toryism. He is a power, as eloquent men generally are. But his Toryism will not swallow a pill so bitter as Sir John Thompson's becoming premier. Last Sunday, the doctor declared from his pulpit that such a man as Sir John Thompson shall never become premier of Canada.

It is very doubtful if the reduction of the railway passenger rate to two cents per mile upon all the railways in Canada would cause any falling off in the receipts of the roads. Reduced fares would increase passenger travel, and it costs no more to haul a loaded passenger car than to haul an empty one. But it will probably be difficult to induce those cabinet ministers and members of parliament who travel upon "annual passes" to think that three cents a mile is too much for ordinary people to pay in railway fares.

RAILWAY SUBSIDIES.

The Minister of Railways on Tuesday brought in his bill by which grants are proposed for several lines of railway. Among other grants we observe the sum of $3,200 a mile granted to the Bay of Quinte railway for 20 miles, being an extension in the counties of Hastings and Addington towards the iron deposits. A similar grant is made to the Thousand Islands railway company for 13 miles of railway from Gananoque Junction on the Grand trunk to a junction with the Brookville, Westport and Sault Ste. Marie line.

POWER OF "HOME, SWEET HOME."

An Occasion When John Howard Payne Sang the Song Under Compulsion.

I was once acquainted with a Swede who had been adopted by the Osage Indians. He was a friend of John Ross, the celebrated chief of the Cherokees, and gave his name in the Cherokee language—it was written J. Q. & J. Q., pronounced Koh-wah-s-koh-weh, and means swamp sparrow. His brother, Lewis Ross, was named Teah-te, which means spoon. My informant was himself called by the Cherokees Tekaw-wha-less ky, which signifies "The man who writes orders for flour."

John Howard Payne, the author of "Home, Sweet Home," was a warm, personal friend of John Ross. At this time the Cherokees were removed from their homes in Georgia to their present home west of the Mississippi River. Payne was spending a few days in Georgia with Ross, who was occupying a miserable cabin, having been forcibly ejected from his former home. A number of prominent Cherokees were in prison, and that portion of Georgia in which the tribe was located was scoured by armed squads of the Georgia militia, who had orders to arrest all who refused to leave the country.

While Ross and Payne were seated before the fire in the hut the door was suddenly burst open and six or eight militia men sprang into the room. Ross' wife was seated on a trunk containing many valuable papers and a small amount of money, and at the unexpected intrusion she sprang up and screamed wildly. Ross spoke to her in the Cherokee language, telling her to be seated, as she would save the contents of the trunk. She sat down again and the intruders told Ross that he and Payne were under arrest, and must prepare to accompany the squad to Milledgeville, where they were to be imprisoned. The soldiers lost no time in taking their prisoners away. Ross was permitted to ride his own horse, while Payne was mounted on one led by a soldier. As the little party left the hovel rain began falling and continued until every man was drenched thoroughly. Toward midnight Payne's escort, in order to keep himself awake, began humming "Home, home, sweet, sweet home," when Payne remarked:

"Little did I expect to hear that song under such circumstances and at such a time. Do you know the author?"
"No," said the soldier, "do you?"
"Yes," answered Payne, "I composed it."
"The devil you did! You can tell that to some other fellow, but not to me. Look here, you made that song, you say; if you did—and I know you didn't—you can say it all without stopping. It has something

NAPANEE, FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1892.

ULSTER is sometimes represented to be a very Protestant province, but statistics show that outside of Belfast Ulster has a population more than half Catholic.

SPAIN has conceded her minimum tariff to Britain. This will enable Canadians to ship goods to Spain and Porto Rico on nearly same terms as American shippers enjoy under the McKinley convention.

The conference of the Chambers of Commerce has come to an end. Led by Sir Charles Tupper, the Canadians present at the conference hoped to make some headway for a scheme of preferential tariff; but although there was plenty of protectionist talk, chiefly from the mouths of Canadian delegates, the division lists showed but little gain for the "fair" traders. Canada was recommended to be heroic and summon up enough courage to adopt unrestricted free trade, which would soon knock the bottom out of the United States. LeCanadien asks the Canadian Government what it is going to do, now that all hope of preferential treatment in the British markets is knocked on the head. It is easy enough for anyone to answer LeCanadien's question, who has watched the course of the Government so far. It intends to do the bidding of the red parlor, and make it impossible for the electorate to change the Government.

The elections in Great Britain which are now on are calling attention to British affairs generally and more or less to the central figure thereof. Speaking of Mr Gladstone the New York Sun says:

"There is no physical reason why Mr Gladstone should not live to be two hundred years old," in the opinion of that eminent English medical authority, Dr Clark. In a few years at a dinner party, Mr. Blake almost immediately proceeded on to South Longford, his chosen constituency, to place himself at the disposal of the electors.

THE VENEER SCRAPED OFF.

Sir Richard Cartwright deserves the thanks of Every Canadian for the masterly way in which he scraped the veneer off the minister of justice on Tuesday, and exposed the true nature and instinct of the man whom the Tories delight to honor. What a contrast there was between Sir Richard's pure English, his calm, incisive, reasoning, and his strict regard for accuracy, and the low abuse and reckless falsehoods indulged in by the Tory leader. It does not require genius to throw mud, and of course Sir John Thompson is an adept at the business. Sir Richard's hard facts forced the minister to drop disguises and appear in his true role. Of course the Nova Scotia Tories were delighted. They never had occasion to be so proud of one of their number since Mr. D. B. Woodworth lost his seat in parliament. Not a single statement made by Sir Richard could the minister of justice dispute. Not one of Sir Richard's arguments could he refute. He could not deny that the present ministry owes power and place to Mr. McGreevy and his campaign fund. No attempt was made to deny the authenticity of the vouchers and letters which have been published by the Globe and which prove every charge that Sir Richard made. All the ministers could do was abuse Sir Richard Cartwright for exposing them and plead that they are no worse than Mercer and Pacaud. They are welcome to all the comfort they can obtain by likening themselves to men whom the Quebec Tories are trying to send to prison, and the abuse showered upon Sir Richard Cartwright will do that gentleman no harm. For years Sir Richard has been a target for Tory abuse. His very strength and purity of character make him such. He is not only an able, eloquent and honest man, but he is a man of dauntless courage as well, and all the efforts of the combiners and their agents in and out of parliament to intimidate him have failed. The minister of justice and his henchmen may slander Sir Richard, just as foul birds may besmear a marble monument, but they cannot injure him. Sir Richard Cartwright never had to sell a judgeship for a seat in parliament; neither has he ever been recommended to county voters as just the man to plunder the public treasury for their benefit. Had Sir Richard when in office only granted to the monopolists the power of robbing and plundering the people—which they obtained from the Tories and still enjoy—they would no doubt have been as willing to supply him with campaign funds as they are to supply the Tories to-day. Sir Richard lost office because he refused to betray the people for the sake of the rings, and of course the rings will spend their last cent to keep him in opposition. The minister of justice is fond of talking about Mr. Farrer preparing a brief for Americans. He is the last man in the world who should refer to such a subject. Mr. Farrer had just as good a right to furnish information asked for by United States citizens as Sir John Thompson to accept the shilling from the United States government to plead against Canada's cause before the Halifax Fisheries commission. Sir Richard Cartwright never hired himself out to the Washington government at so many dollars a day to fight against Canada. Can the very "patriotic" minister of justice say as much? And the attempts of the beneficiaries of Mr. McGreevy's "conspiracy" to drag Mr. Laurier down to their own level were very properly resented and spoiled by that gentleman when he challenged them to formulate their accusations. —Free Press.

Mr. Editor.—Being one of the few patrons who came to hear Professor McKeown's lecture on the cheese industry of our country, I was pleased to hear him say we did not live in the age of miracles and if we would improve the quality of our cheese we must rely on our own individual efforts, but would it not be well for the professor to fight shy of St. Anne's Quebec and Selby in this county, for in both of these villages the miracle business is said to be booming this summer, so when the professor tells us that the improvement must be made all at this end of the line and that it is impossible to change the price at the other end, it should surely set us thinking. Is it possible that the laborer can have nothing to say as to what he shall have for his labour, that the man that keeps the cows to make the cheese can have nothing to say as to what its price shall be. Do these things lie outside of human control, are they in the field of miracle. Is it not possible they are under man's control. Is it not possible the professor is mistaken here. Did it ever occur to the professor that the appreciation of gold, manipulated by a few financiers in England and other countries of Europe, and bought legislation in America and the colonies, had enabled her to buy a dollar's worth of commodities for forty cents in gold.

did—and I know you didn't—you can say it all without stopping. It has something about pleasures and palaces. Now pitch in and reel it off, and if you can't I'll bounce you from your horse and lead you instead of it."

The threat was answered by Payne, who repeated the song in a slow, subdued tone, and then sang it, making the old words ring with the tender melody and pathos of the words. It touched the heart of the rough soldier, who was not only captivated but convinced, and who said that the composer of such a song should never go to prison if he could help it. And when the party reached Milledgeville they were, after a preliminary examination, discharged, much to their surprise. Payne insisted that it was because the leader of the squad had been under the magnetic influence of Ross' conversation, and Ross insisted that they had been saved from insult and imprisonment by the power of "Home, Sweet Home," sung as only those who can feel can sing it.

The friendship existed between Ross and Payne until the grave closed over the mortal remains of the latter.—Free Press.

How to Cook Potatoes—A Great Secret.

I have been dining here—one of the best clubs in London. But the potatoes are uniformly bad, waxy and indigestible. I do not write merely of a club grievance. I am an old housekeeper—married over twenty years. I am passionately fond of potatoes, and I rarely ever get them to my liking. I had to go to—the other day, and my host is a large potato grower. At dinner the potatoes were perfectly ravishing! A few questions and answers elicited the remarkable fact that my own table was usually supplied by my host's potatoes. But mine were always like those of the club, dull, sodden, waxy and abominable. His were light, dry, mealy and perfectly delightful. Being a bit of a cook myself I arranged with my host to spend the next forenoon in his kitchen. The potato is composed almost entirely of pure starch. To make this starch agreeable to the eye and the palate, its corpuscular elements must be split up by heat in the presence of excess of moisture, and at a temperature just a little higher than boiling water at the sea level (212°). Now, I happen to live at such a height above sea level that water probably boils at 210°. I never get good potatoes. My host's house was just as mine, and his cook said that the water in the well did not suit potatoes (she knew nothing about the sea level and temperature) so that she was obliged to "soften it with salt." She put a big handful of salt in the pot of potatoes, and I think raised the boiling point to about 216°. Then, after boiling them till the skins burst, she poured off the water, cocked the lid half off the pot, put the latter on the hob, and thus for about fifteen minutes she thoroughly dried them. The result was amazing and delightful. I went home, and I made a series of careful experiments. You cannot steam a potato into perfection unless you enclose the steam so as to raise its temperature to about 216°. Potatoes must always be boiled in their skins and in a pretty strong saline solution, in order to get them to perfection, delightful to the palate and easy of digestion. After such treatment they may be made into soup; they may be baked or roasted (for a few minutes only) in their skins; they may be mashed, cooked a la maitre saute, or fifty things may be done with them; but first of all they must be boiled in their skins, with plenty of salt, and then well dried.

Cavalry in Turkey.

The Turkish cavalry still has Winchester carbines and will retain them for a short time. The infantry has 500,000 Henry-Martini rifles and 200,000 Mauser rifles of 9.5 millimeters caliber. An order was placed in Austria a short time ago, moreover, for 280,000 Manlicher rifles of 7.5 millimeters caliber.

An Electrical Advance.

An English firm has invented an ingenious device for turning on the currents for electric lamps at a certain hour. An ordinary clock is so adjusted that at the desired moment a spring is released, permitting a pair of pivoted contacts to fall into mercury cups, thus completing the circuit.

INDIAN PASSION PLAY.

AN IMPRESSIVELY DRAMATIC POR-TRAYAL OF THE CRUCIFIXION.

The Progress to the Cross Presented by the Natives of British Columbia—Thousands in Attendance—A Strange and Very Moving Spectacle.

One of the most important religious events that has ever taken place in Western Canada was the recent presentation of the Passion Play by the Indians of St. Mary's Mission near New Westminster. The Indians have but little imagination, and accordingly the missionaries have had great difficulty in teaching them the various Bible stories. The plan of presenting a Passion Play was finally adopted a few years ago as the best means of giving the natives a conception of the leading events in the life of the Saviour. Several times the Indians at the various missions have essayed to present the play or parts of it, but never have they given so complete and realistic a production as on this occasion, and it is doubtful if the play has ever been so well presented on this continent.

A party of distinguished Roman Catholic priests is now visiting the missions of British Columbia, and the play was given in order to show them the advance which the Indians of the Province have made. The visitors were Archbishop Duhamel of Ottawa, Bishop La Fleche of Three Rivers, Bishop Lorrain of Pembroke, Bishop Macdonnell of Alexandria, Bishop Brondel of Helena, Vicar-General Hamel of Quebec, Vicar-General Marchel of Montreal, and many other well-known members of the priesthood. The Indian tribes which took part in the conclave were the Shuswap, Thompson River, Fraser River, Squamish, Sechelt, Stickeen and Douglas. The thousands of Indians who had gathered from all parts of British Columbia were encamped at the foot of the bluff, overlooking the Fraser River, on which the mission stands. The tribes were in separate clusters of teepees, and in the center of each group was placed the standard of the tribe. In addition to these standards, bright banners were streaming from the tops of many of the tents, and the natives themselves were decked in their most gorgeous colors—the flaming reds and strong yellows, as usual, predominating.

When the train bearing the visitors arrived on the morning of Thursday, June 2, a drizzle was falling, but every while the blood from his brow trickled down his face and stained his white garments. So true was the scene that the spectator could hardly rid himself of the idea that the blood was real.

Fully as real was the next tableau, the burden of the cross. Overcome by the load, Christ had slipped, and his body was pinned to the ground by the heavy weight. The crown of thorns still pierced his brow, and his countenance was obscured by dust and blood. An Indian woman, as St. Veronica, stooped forward to wipe his face, and two soldiers with blows were urging him to rise to his feet.

In the seventh scene Christ was meeting the weeping women of Jerusalem, and with a reassuring smile was telling them not to grieve for him.

From this spectacle the procession, softly singing the solemn chant, passed into the large yard of the mission. There on a platform at the very edge of the cliff towered the cross. A waxen image of the Saviour was nailed to its arms, and clinging to the feet of the Crucified and receiving the drops of blood on her head was a Mary Magdalene whose long jet black hair streamed below her waist. Beside her was a dusky Virgin Mary, with dumb, tearless agony expressed in every feature. Near the edge of the platform a tall, handsome Squamish Indian, representing St. John, sat bowed in hopeless grief. Soldiers with swords and spears were grouped around the cross, and one held the hyssop to the sufferer's lips.

As the chanting Indians came before this last tableau they were visibly affected, the song was hushed, and all silently fell to their knees. The spectators who had followed out of curiosity uncovered, and Protestant and Catholic alike bowed at the moving sight.

The stillness had grown oppressive, when five of the chiefs arose, and each in turn called out in his own language that Jesus was dying, was dying, was dying. A shrill, mournful chant, repeated over and over, and echoed from the cliffs across the river was the reply. Then, at a signal, all arose, and filing past the crucifix each made a deep reverence.

After the last man had bowed, and the crowd was slowly scattering, the sky grew dark again, and the rain began to fall.—Seattle Correspondence New York Sun.

THE WIFE OF A GENIUS.
How Robert Louis Stevenson's Marriage Was Brought About.

An official high in the employ of the Government said to me the other day: "The story of how Robert Louis Stevenson got his wife has never been told in print, I believe. The story sounds almost like a chapter from a novel, but it is, nevertheless, absolutely true in all its details, says a writer in the Kansas City Times.

"In 1885 I, a young man, became intimately acquainted with Samuel C. Osborne, who was then private secretary to Governor Willard, of Indiana. Osborne was a magnificent fellow in personal appearance and magnetism. He was versatile, scholarly, witty, quick as the lightning's flash in repartee and a fine musician. That man could draw sweeter tones from a flute than any man I ever knew.

"Well, in 1858 Osborne married a black-eyed Miss Vandegrift; she was not beautiful, by any means, but rather attractive. At that time he was in the office of the reporter of the Supreme Court of Indiana and was making good money.

"In 1861 James B. Beach, reporter of the Supreme Court, and Osborne, both of whom had saved up a few thousand dollars, started for Arizona. Sam had his wife and two children, a boy and a girl, and he took them along. Arrived at Arizona Beach and Osborne bought a mine with their savings and in about a month were offered $10,000 in cash for their bonanza. Beach wanted to hold it for a larger offer and inside of six weeks they could not sell it for a dollar.

"Osborne headed for San Francisco and reached the Golden Gate with $7 in his pocket. He knew a good deal of law and was a good stenographer, one of the fastest in the country at that time. This accomplishment stood him in hand, for he was soon making lots of money, and sometimes he used to write to me he would get $1,000 for reporting a single case. As years went on the daughter and son grew up and were sent abroad to finish their education. The son went to England and the daughter to France. The mother went to Europe and spent a season or two with them.

"The last time Mrs. Osborne went over was in 1883, and then she met Robert Louis Stevenson—I believe it was in Paris. She at once wrote back to her husband and told of meeting the literary genius and told of an affection she had formed for him. Osborne evidently thought this more than a merely platonic affection, and, I

June 2, a drizzle was falling, but every Indian in the camp was standing by the track to get a glimpse of the fathers from the East. As the priests stepped from the train a Squamish chief, Harry, came forward, and in the native tongue delivered an address of greeting, which was translated by an interpreter. From the Mission Hill a salute of cannon was fired, and the bluffs along the river tossed back a hundred echoes. After the speech of welcome was over, three brass bands, every player in which was an Indian, gave some remarkably good music.

While the visiting clergy were taken into the mission for luncheon the Indians squatted on the ground by their tents, built smouldering fires for their native cooking, and munched dried salmon. The rain would stop occasionally, and then pour down again with renewed vigor, but the Indians paid no heed to it.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the announcement was made that the play would begin. Two chiefs addressed the people in the encampment, ordering them to mass themselves at the foot of the winding path leading up the hill to the mission. The Indians gathered like an army on the lowland, and at a given signal from the two chiefs the procession moved up the steep ascent. First came the women, carrying the papooses, then the young bucks, and after them a mixed crowd of old men and women, boys and girls. Slowly they moved up the hill, chanting in Latin, broken by the guttural sounds of their own language, the "Hail, Jesus." The song seemed to effect them greatly, for now their voices would rise high and shrill, and now would die away to a low moan. At the crescent the Indians would throw back their heads and wave their arms in a religious frenzy. The play had no speaking parts, but was presented in a series of eight tableaux. The stage was the broad, hard boulevard leading past the mission buildings. The tableaux were all placed at once, one after another, at intervals of about fifty feet, and consequently each scene had different sets of actors. Only the best of the Indians were chosen for parts, and so the honor of being in the performance was a high one, and the men and women selected were regarded as much to be envied. The tableaux were as complete as the limited resources of the mission would allow, and the costumes, which were carefully fashioned after those of pictures, were fairly correct.

At the top of the hill a chief was stationed, giving in a low tone the command by which the procession divided, half going on one side of the boulevard, and half on the other. As they marched along, the Indians still sang their weird chant, and at each tableau or stage of the cross every one in the procession made a profound obeisance and crossed himself.

The first group, or tableau, contained a stalwart Indian, robed in a white surplice and cloak of blue. He knelt in supplication, while six red-gowned natives lay on the ground behind him feigning sleep. The scene was the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. The Indian representing Christ had been drilled until he seemed to have an unusually good conception of the part, for he threw his whole soul into the portrayal, and his face wore a wonderful expression of suffering and intercession. During the forty minutes while the spectators were walking past, he appeared to be in a state almost hypnotic, for not a muscle of his body moved.

The second scene was Christ seized by the soldiers. An Indian, about the same in stature as in the first tableau and wearing exactly the same dress, took the part of the Saviour. Other natives with the shields, spears, helmets, and jerkins of Roman soldiers were binding the unresisting Lord.

In the third tableau Christ appeared before Pilate. The Roman Governor was seated on a dais spread with scarlet, while his chair of state was covered with a robe of the same gorgeous color. Before him a slave held a basin and pitcher with which he was about to wash his hands, disclaiming all part in the crime which the Jews wished to have committed. Before the Governor stood Christ with downcast eyes and bound with chains. Near by was a group of sullen and angry Jews watching the proceedings of the trial.

The fourth picture, the flagellation, was horrible in its realism. Christ was bound to a post, and two savage soldiers were standing over him, with bloody knouts upraised. The Saviour, from whose back the blood was pouring, bent forward, his face showing both anguish and spiritual determination.

In the fifth picture Christ sat in a rough chair, and soldiers with spears in their hands stood about him. One of them was placing on his head a crown of thorns, than a merely platonic affection, and, I guess, had good reason to think so, for he wrote her that if she loved Stevenson to come back to Frisco and obtain a divorce.

"She did this, and as soon as the divorce was granted the invitations for her marriage to Robert Louis Stevenson were sent out. The bridegroom was in town during the divorce proceedings. Osborne was invited to the wedding and he accepted.

"He appeared on that evening dressed faultlessly and having on his arm a lady of rare beauty. The wedding over the new Mrs. Stevenson introduced her new husband to her former one, and Osborne in turn represented the lady on his arm as Mrs. Samuel C. Osborne! He had been married quietly to her as soon as the divorce was granted.

"Osborne would make no outward sign, but the episode broke his heart. He went to Australia and Stevenson to Samoa. I have never heard from Osborne since. The places and men that knew him know him no more, and I do not know whether he is living or dead."

A Prolific Tree.

It has been shown that the white elm of our bottom lands and groves yields, one year with another, at a very moderate estimate, too, 320,000 seeds. Now, an elm ordinarily lives at least a full 100 years, and, consequently, in the course of that comparatively short life produces nearly 3,000,000 grains, all coming from one original seed.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering, and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. For children teething its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price, 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, and take no other.

THE TWO-CENT PASSENGER MILEAGE MOTION.

The Resolution of the Member for East York Voted Down 133 to 20—Chinese Exclusion—The Senate and the Redistribution Bill.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 6.—The greater part of Tuesday morning's session was taken up with a discussion on the adoption of the report of the Debates Committee recommending some changes in the manner of printing and distributing debates next year. Propositions to abolish the debates altogether and another to limit reports to the House and omit supply and committee were made but not accepted, and the report was adopted.

Arraigning the Chinese.

On the second reading of the Chinese Immigration Act Mr. Gordon spoke strongly against Chinese immigration as being injurious to the labor, social and all other interests of British Columbia. They imported smallpox, leprosy and all kinds of diseases into the country, so much so that the province was forced to keep a lazaretto on the island near Victoria. Whatever little money they made in the country they took out of it. He favored their exclusion, the same as was the case in the United States. The bill was read a second time.

The Civil Service Act was read a third time.

Two Cent Mileage.

Hon. Mr. Haggart moved the third reading of the bill to amend the Railway Act.

Mr. Maclean (East York) moved the amendment of which he had given notice, that a maximum rate of two cents per mile should be adopted on all railways in Canada. He said that he would first deal with the objection raised that Parliament had not the power to regulate railroads. He claimed that this Parliament, which had assisted the railroads by large subsidies and grants of land and had given them franchises, had power also to regulate railroads in every respect. This was a sound principle and one that could be maintained. Even the municipalities of the country had power to regulate their street railways, and surely if the municipalities had that power the Parliament of Canada had equal powers. The United States controlled its railways, as also did the countries in Europe. This railway problem in Canada, he said, was next to the labor question. His proposal for a two-cent passenger rate was in the interests of the people of the country. It would create increased travel, and greater intercourse between the provinces. It would have the effect of binding people together, and create a community of interests between different provinces.

Would Benefit Commerce.

Commerce would be greatly benefited. He had met a great many Toronto merchants who said that if they could get cheaper travel they would send out more travelers, and consequently do more business. It was travel that made the man. This amendment was also in the interests of labor. There was always work in the country, but with high rates of travel the workman could not reach it. Cheaper travel would settle this matter.

His amendment would also operate in the interest of the railways. With greater travel the revenue of the railway would increase. This was shown by the lowering of the postage and telegraph rates. The traffic increased and the revenue also increased.

Mr. Van Horne was the great whale of Canada while he (Maclean) was a small fish, but it was time that the small fish did something before they would be gobbled up by the great whale. [Laughter.] Mr. Maclean then proceeded to show what had been accomplished in Hungary by the lowering of the rates.

It being 1 o'clock the Speaker left the chair.

When the House resumed Mr. Maclean concluded his speech by moving his amendment making it compulsory for railways to carry passengers at 2 cents per mile. His amendment would not apply to railways west of Port Arthur.

Mr. Wood Suggests the Railway Committee.

Mr. Wood (Brockville) said that the mover of the amendment learned something since he first introduced his amendment, having now curtailed it to a certain portion of the Dominion, while in the first instance it was applicable all over the Dominion. The proposition was one which involved consequences of a most important character to the whole Dominion. It would be unfair to select any such amendment

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ar.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ANCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

in the Senate to-morrow and a determined effort made to get it through so that prorogation may take place this week or Monday or Tuesday of next week. Should this be found impossible it is understood that a short bill will be introduced and passed authorizing the continuation of a consideration of the bill next year at the point it was left this year, so that the work done may not be lost. It is, therefore, pretty certain that prorogation, if it does not take place Friday night, will not be delayed beyond Tuesday.

The Washington Visit.

Just before the House adjourned Hon. Mr. Foster made a brief statement with regard to the visit of himself and Hon. Mr. Bowell to Washington. He said that they had prepared a minute of council which they had forwarded to the United States Government re canal tolls, and which would be laid on the table. It is substantially the same as the statements which have been sent from Washington and which have been published.

Beet Root Sugar.

Hon. Mr. Foster to-night gives notice that on Thursday night he will move the following resolution in committee of the whole:

That it is expedient to provide that the Governor-in-Council may authorize the payment out of the consolidated revenue fund of Canada, under such regulations and restrictions as are made by order in-council to the producers of any raw beet root sugar produced in Canada, wholly from beets grown therein between the first day of July, 1893, and June 30, 1895, of a bounty of $1 per 100 pounds, and in addition thereto to 3½ cents per 100 pounds for each degree, or fraction of a degree over 70 degrees shown by the polariscope test.

A Buffalo Murder.

BUFFALO, July 6.—Frederick Logren of Hamilton, Ont., who travels around the country giving exhibitions of breaking stones with his fist, engaged in a fight in Paddy Moran's saloon, Canal-street, with Charles Severtson, a Chicago sailor. The dispute arose over a woman who passes as Logren's wife. The party were having a good time when Severtson said something unfair to oppose any such amendment until the whole question was made a subject of a Parliamentary enquiry. There was no doubt but the Railway Committee of the Privy Council had the power to remedy all matters connected with railways and Mr.

 Macleay ought to bring his grievances there for adjustment. The proposition was one which asked Parliament to deliberately con-ficate rights which had been conferred on these companies by an act of Parliament.
 There was one grievance which he (Wood) intended bringing before Parliament next session in connection with railways, and that was the inconvenience caused to passengers in Eastern Ontario through the ignoring of connections between the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk Railways. A passenger arriving at Brockville from Ottawa by the Canadian Pacific would just get there in time to see the Grand Trunk leaving the station.

Mr. Edgar Calls it Confiscation.
 Mr. Edgar opposed the amendment, which would simply be one of confiscation considering the investments which had been made in these roads.

Dr. Sproule spoke in favor of the amendment. A poor man would have no chance to go and fight against a great corporation before the railway committee of the privy council.

Mr. Corby spoke against the amendment, stating that it would lower the wages of the working man.

Mr. Cockburn said it was absurd to come one day to Parliament and ask for millions of dollars to construct railways, which could not be constructed without this money, and then to bring in a resolution to the House to deprive these roads of one-third of their earnings. A pressure of this kind put upon the railway companies would cause a reduction of the wages of the railway employees. The House was not yet possessed of sufficient information to legislate upon such an important matter.

Lieut.-Col. Tisdale said that the mover would look in vain for any legislation which had reduced the maximum rates on railways except on the New York Central, and the circumstances connected with that change would be no precedent for the legislation which was now proposed. He denied that railway companies had not reduced their passengers' fares for 30 years and gave several instances to show that such was the case.

The Vote.
 The House divided on the amendment, which was lost by 20 for to 128 against.
 The 20 who voted for the amendment were:

The bill was read a third time.

The Senate Wakes Up.
 The Senate had three sittings to-day and got through the second reading of the Re-distribution bill after a long discussion and the voting down by 35 to 7 of Senator Boulton's amendment that the bill be referred to the Supreme Court for an opinion as to its constitutionality.

The criminal code will be taken up good time when Severtson said something that offended Mrs. Logren, who works in the dive. She slapped the fellow's face and he pushed her from him and she fell down.

Somebody in the room saw the scrap and ran down stairs and told Logren. He flew upstairs and attacked Severtson with his terrible fists. Blow after blow was landed on Severtson's head and face, and he at last dropped to the floor a corpse. Logren was arrested.

A Dead Horse Wins a Race.
 WINNIPEG, July 6.—At Prairie Grove race meeting yesterday a valuable running horse dropped dead while contesting a race.
 The judges awarded the owner the first money as his horse would undoubtedly have won, the other owners not protesting the decision.

Fell from a Train to Death.
 WINNIPEG, July 6.—As St. Andrew's Church Sabbath School picnic train was returning from Greta a little girl named Maggie Heslop lost her hat while standing on the platform, and reaching out for it fell from the train and had her neck broken, death being instantaneous.

A Doctor Charged With Manslaughter.
 STZ. SCHOLASTIQUE, Que., July 6.—The July term of the Court of Queen's Bench convened here on Saturday, Judge Taschereau presiding. The grand jury returned a true bill for manslaughter for the poisoning of a child of one Latour, against Dr. Gaudet of St. Ann des Plaines.

Made a Prophecy and Died.
 ST. CATHARINES, July 6.—Barnabas A.
 Haynes, aged 52, a farmer on the Hamilton-road, awoke this morning about 5 o'clock and asked his wife if the wind was blowing.
 She said she thought so, and he turned over in the bed remarking that it would likely rain during the day. In a moment afterwards Mrs. Haynes noticed that he made a peculiar struggle to get his breath, when in almost a twinkling he expired, death being evidently caused by heart failure.

Paisley Boy Drowned.
 PAISLEY, Ont., July 6.—The body of Arthur Webster, grandson of Joseph Mc-Donald, about 8 years old, was found in the willow creek last evening. It is supposed that the little fellow had been playing on the bridge on his way home and had fallen in where the water was some three feet deep.

Killed in Toronto.
 TORONTO, June 6.—Martha Blake, aged 11 years, while picking up coal under a cart near the Pape-avenue railway crossing yesterday morning, was knocked down and the wheel passed over her head, killing her instantly.

GREAT Improvement Sale!

THE CONTRACT HAS BEEN LET for very extensive improvements in our stores. Partitions are to be taken out, new hardwood floors and new shelving to be put in, and the whole place to be painted throughout.

We are bound to have the finest, most complete and most convenient Dry Goods Establishment in Central Ontario.

In consequence we will be compelled to move our stock into one store while the workmen do the work in the other. Just think! our large stock in one store. It won't hold it. There was a time when it would, but that is past now. What must be done? Why part of the stock must be sold at once.

The workmen begin operations in ten days time, therefore commencing on Saturday, the 9th inst., we will sell you Dry Goods, Clothing, Carpets, Millinery, etc., etc., cheaper than ever before. In many cases the prices are under cost.

We beg to thank you for the liberal patronage extended to us during five years past, which is increasing every day, and which necessitates the present improvements in our premises. We told you at the commencement of our business career, that we were bound to deserve your patronage. We still solicit your continued patronage, assuring you that we will spare no efforts to please you and to give you the best value for your money in every case.

The following is a Price List, [a Price List hangs in every Department and you can read it for yourself] taken from a few of the Departments, which will give you an idea what we are doing.

ROBINSON & CO'Y

SUCCESSORS TO DOWNEY & CO.

The Napanee Express

NAPANEE, FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1892.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—Gents shave at Ferguson's.
—Wedding rings at Chinneck's.
—For fine Photos go to Hulett's.
—Salt $1.25 per bbl at Kimmerly's.
—Delicious fresh fruits at Bruton's.
—Best bottle pickles, 15c per bottle, at Kimmerly's.
—Itch on human and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by Perry & Co., Druggists.
—A few nights ago a Mrs. Corkey, of Barriefield, near Kingston, hid $30 in the stove, fearing burglars. In the morning the $30 helped to light the fire for breakfast.
—Large consignments of fish are sent over the Bay of Quinte Railway every day en route for Buffalo, N. Y. A consignment of thirteen huge sturgeons was sent from Deseronto, one day last week.

—Mrs. John Tierney, of Adolphustown, died on Monday. She lived on the old Mackie farm, near Napanee.

—Miss Naismith, B. A., late of Napanee Collegiate Institute, it is said will be married to Wm. Slomans, at Toronto.

—Algernon Jamieson, son of Judge Jamieson, Guelph, died on Sunday from tuberculosis of the brain. The remains were interred at Almonte. Deceased was a nephew of Mr. Jamieson of Napanee.

—Several citizens have received invitations to attend a reception at Deseronto, on July 11th, in honor of the return of Dr. Oronhyatekha from England, where he was instituting the establishment of courts of the I. O. F.—Whig.

—Clipped from the Pioneer Press, Ernest Pembina Co., N. Dak.—On the 20th inst. the wife of Mr. Sheldon Joyce presented her husband with a young American farmer. Shell feels as important as if he had recently been nominated for the coming Presidential election.

Taking experience as the test there can be no question about the superior quality of the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. From the first year of its manufacture the demand for it has steadily grown. Even in the years which were marked by our business depression, there was no pause in the increase of the sale of it. In the dull years of 1876-'77 and '78, the sales of it were vastly greater than in the prosperous year 1873.

—Malarial Fever and Chills are best broken up and prevented by using Milburn's aromatic quinine Wine.

—All the stations along the line of the Bay of Quinte Ry. are being thoroughly painted and renovated.

—The Central is the best barber shop in town. If you want an easy shave or a nobby hair cut, call at this shop. Wm Ferguson, Prop.

—Edward Linlef, of St. Peters, C. B., says—"That his horse was badly torn by a pitchfork. One bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT cured him."

—The assessment of the town for the present year is $30,000 lower than that of last year, caused by depreciation of property and property destroyed by fire and not rebuilt.

—The band serenaded Dr. Cowan and bride on Monday evening last. The Dr. however evidently did not appreciate their kindness and instead of presenting them with a $5 or $10 bill, ordered them to desist.

—The members of Picton orchestras are N. Gilbert and P. C. Macnee, 1st violin; H. S. Gilbert, 2nd violin; John Black, trombone; P. S. Stitt, 1st cornet; W. Batton, 2nd cornet; Lou Jones, clarinet; Arthur Irwin, flute; E. Harris' pouble bass; Miss Maud Irwin, pianist.

A Liberal Triumph.
Scores of men and women who have always suffered their prejudices to blind them to the merits of Burdock Hood Bitters now use and praise this wonderful tonic purifier as the best remedy known for dyspepsia, constipation and all blood diseases.

Minard's Liniment is the Best —Sugars cheaper than ever at Kimmerly's; a car load just to hand.

As An Aid to Internal Remedies for skin diseases, Dr. Low's Sulphur Soap proves very valuable.

—Call and see my Corn Cultivators before buying. They are the best, Miles S. Plumley.

—Something entirely new in a washing machine. It is said to be perfect. Try one at Miles S. Plumley's.

—J. C. Lewis, Deseronto, was seen carting home a monster channel cat-fish which weighed 25 lbs. one day last week.

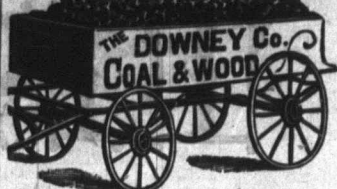

—The Moonlight Excursion advertised to be run by the steamer Ella Ross to Glenora on Saturday evening, will be run this (Friday) evening instead. Steamer will leave her wharf at 7 p. m. Tickets 25c.

—The Kermesse at Belleville on the Hospital Lot, under the auspices of the ladies of St. Michael's church has been a gratifying success despite the unfavorable weather last week. The amount of work that was entailed on the ladies was very great, but was faithfully done, and their reward is the satisfaction of knowing their labors have been successful.

Nothing so Good.

Dear Sirs,—I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in my family for a number of years, and find nothing so good for diarrhea and sick stomach as it has proved itself to be.

Every Testimonial.

In behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly true and will bear the closest investigation. No matter where it may be from, it is as reliable and worthy your confidence as if it came from your most respected neighbor. Have you ever tried this excellent medicine?

By-laws Drooped.

At the meeting of the Town Council on Monday last nothing was said of the by-laws introduced at a former session. One was to appoint a town solicitor, and the other was to give the Chief of Police power to dismiss persons apprehended for drunkenness in case of a first offence, without appearing before a magistrate.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents.

He's Needed Just the Same.

As a rule the person who objects to local schemes, which seem to him unwarrantable, gets the name of being a "Kicker." But it often happens that municipalities run into debt and consequent heavy taxation just because the kicker's advice is not heeded. The kicker's part is not a pleasant one to play; but it is a part often needed nevertheless.

New Footwalk Wanted.

That a new plankwalk is badly needed on the North side of Dundas street requires but a walk over the same to convince any one. It was intended to rebuild the walk this year, and several merchants were expecting a smoother road to travel, but economy resolved otherwise, and the Street Committee are endeavouring to worry through another year with the old nail heads and knotty protuberances that do duty at present.

Eternal Vigilance.

Is the price of health. But with all our precautions there are enemies always lurking about our system, only waiting a favorable opportunity to assert themselves. Impurities in the blood may be hidden for years or even for generations and suddenly break forth, undermining health and hastening death. For all diseases arising from impure blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is the unequalled and unapproached remedy. It is King of them all, for it conquers disease.

A By-law much Needed.

Councillor Warner gave notice at last meeting of the town council to introduce a by-law to regulate the payment of taxes. At present the man who pays at an early date is a loyal citizen and nothing more, while the individual who pays six months or eight or nine months later on, saves the interest on his money. Under the proposed new by-law, all persons who do not pay up within a reasonable and fixed time, will have to pay an additional one per cent per month for every month the taxes are over due. It is also proposed to make the taxes payable to the treasurer, and save a collector's salary.

A Number of Deaths in Ernestown.

We regret to report the death of three Ernestown citizens during the past week. Mrs. Benn, wife of Elgin Benn, of the village of Odessa, died at her home in Newburgh, on Friday last. The funeral took place on Sunday to the Newburgh cemetery. She has been a sufferer for a long time. She died at the early age of twenty-four years and leaves a husband and two little children.

Miss Amey, Link's Mills, died on Saturday and was buried on Monday at the Lutheran church cemetery.

Billings Hartman, an old and respected resident of Odessa, passed away on Monday, at the age of 62 years. Mr. Hartman was born at Odessa, and spent his whole life in that vicinity. He was a citizen respected for his honesty and integrity. He leaves a widow and two children—Alpheus Hartman, of Odessa, and Mrs. Leasher, of Napanee Mills.

Renovated.

The treasurer's room in the county building has been papered and cleaned, in accordance with resolution of County Council at its last session. The room was in a rather dilapidated looking condition, but is now very neat and clean.

Good for Them!

The 47th Batt. Band, of Napanee, was awarded the prize of $50 for best marching and best equipped band in Belleville on Dominion Day. The boys showed up as only Napanee boys know how, and when they did get a chance the musical wind from their horns shook the wind out of the sails of the Deseronto and other bands which were flying high.

Nearly a Drowning Accident.

Arthur and Walter Pope, grandsons of Mrs. Eliza Pope, Picton, had a narrow escape from being drowned last week while running the logs in the harbor at that place. One boy went down the second time and the other the third time and then stuck fast but was brought up by the aid of a pike pole and got ashore. The boys are nephews of Dr. Ward of this town.

Struck a Gold Mine.

W. A. Hungerford, traveller, of the city of Belleville, thinks he has struck a rich vein of gold in Tudor township. For several years past he has been of the opinion that there was a gold mine in North Hastings and some time ago he hired Joseph Best of Bannockburn to prospect a piece of land in Tudor. Mr. Best put in two blasts revealing a vein of rocks bearing gold twenty feet wide. Mr. Hungerford at once secured the lot and will commence operations at once.

The Summer Death-Rate.

The greatest evidence of the danger of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhea, and Dysentery, is the increase in the death-rate of all the leading cities during the summer months. Men and women can not be too careful of their habits of life during the heated term, and particular attention should be paid to the diet of children. A supply of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER should always be at hand, for it is the only medicine that can be relied on at all times as safe, sure, and speedy. A teaspoonful will cure any ordinary case; but in severe attacks it is occasionally necessary to bathe the sufferer's stomach with the PAIN KILLER. All reputable druggists have it for sale. 25c. price per large bottle.

Drowned in a Cistern.

One of the most painful events in the annals of Chatham is the melancholy death of Col. Satter M. Jarvis, who was Saturday night found drowned in a cistern in the basement of his residence. Recently he has suffered from a severe illness and it is supposed that while examining the cistern, as was his wont, he was overcome by a weakness and fell through a trap door as he was preparing to descend into the tank. The body had evidently been in the water some hours before being discovered. The deceased gentleman was well known and was a deservedly esteemed and popular citizen. He was a retired Lieut.-Col. of the Queen's Own Regiment, Toronto, a barrister by profession, a member and lay delegate of Holy Trinity Church and a conservative in politics. Col. Jarvis was a brother of the Rev. A. Jarvis, pastor of St. Mary Magdalene's Church, Napanee, who received the sad news of his brother's death late on Saturday night and left as soon as possible for Chatham. Rev. Archdeacon Roe occupied the pulpit on Sunday.

Pleased Teachers.

The School Board at its last meeting increased the salaries of the teachers all around as follows: Mr. Henry, principal, increased $200, making salary up to $1400 per year. Messrs. Lang and Morden increased $100 each, making salary up to $1000 per year each. Mr. Collins increased $100, making salary $900. The reason for this action as stated by the trustees was that the teachers would no longer retain their situations unless an increased salary was given. The trustees had therefore before them the alternative of increasing salaries or changing teachers. The result of the examinations now pending will show whether the trustees acted wisely in retaining the present staff. Should the Institute achieve a good average as compared with other schools of a like kind, there will be just that much justification. The increase of salaries amounts to $500, of which the county will have to pay one-half. In the East ward school salaries were increased also, but only in accordance with an arrangement made some time ago. Mr. Black gets $50 more, making salary $600; Misses Wales and Parkes $25 each, making salaries $250 each, not too much by any means. While the teachers are doubtless pleased at the action of the Board, the town council and county council will not be tickled at all. In town the last notch of assessment has been reached, with a much lower valuation upon which to assess, and the town fathers are at their wits' end to make two ends meet. This increase therefore will not be well received by that body we opine.

Daring Deed of Horsemanship.

Mr. John T. Allison, of Picton, who is well known in Napanee, had a thrilling experience recently while preparing Mr. Jno. H. Allan's four-year-old stallion, Kirkoffer, for the Napanee races. He was testing the animal's speed for the full mile, on the grounds of the driving park at that place, before a number of spectators when the bit broke and a serious runaway accident seemed almost certain. Jack however, who is known as a daring horseman, was up to the occasion and when nearly opposite the grand stand, to the surprise of everybody he reached forward and caught hold of the backstrap of the harness and with one spring he landed upon the horse's back and reaching forward took hold of the overdraw check close to the ears of the horse where the strap parts only a few inches down the neck. By this means John kept the horse from running into the fences on either side. A Pictonian says: "It was a thrilling sight. Talk about your Buffalo Bill shows and your wild west riders! This equalled their most daring exploits." John had a great deal of trouble in sticking on as the shafts kept him from securing hold of the horse with his legs. After running a mile and a half the horse slowed up and John jumped off, the spectators who were close at hand assisting in securing the horse. It was quite evident that through his pluck and good horsemanship and nerve John undoubtedly averted what would have been a very serious affair. Not a strap was broken, and with the exception of striking his knee the horse and sulky were uninjured.—Times.

Dominion Day in Napanee.

On Thursday of last week at break of day the outlook for fine weather for Dominion Day celebration was black indeed. The rain descended with perseverance all the morning, while the clouds presented no sign of breaking or lightening. Needless to say the hopes of the Demonstration committee were at zero, while not one ray of hope or sunshine was visible. In this fix and considering the very soft state of the track it was deemed advisable to postpone the whole programme. Reluctantly the committee resolved to do this, but no other course seemed possible or feasible. Owners of horses were therefore notified by telegraph. Strange to relate no sooner had this been done than the heavy clouds began to separate, and a glimpse of the sun was had through the disappearing clouds. What could have been but little expected now actually happened, and the afternoon was as fine as could be desired, though the roads were very wet and the puddles did not dry up very fast. The fine weather quite unexpectedly continued all through Dominion Day and crowds of visitors arrived in and promenade the town. Some disappointment was naturally felt that the sports were postponed, and some grumbling was heard in consequence; but on the whole the visitors were a good-natured crowd and speedily resolved to enjoy the day in the best manner possible. In the early morning, the Band and a crowd of excursionists left per steamer Ella Ross for Belleville. A good many of the citizens went by this boat, and had a good time in Belleville. It seems as though the clerk of the weather has a grudge against the sports committee of Napanee; for when they expect a fine day, as last year, it unexpectedly rains, and when they count with every reasonable degree of certainty on a wet day, behold it turns out gloriously fine and tempts people to enjoy a holiday.

NOTES.

This makes the third year that Napanee has been cheated out of Dominion Day's sports by rainy weather. If the old saying "Three times and out" be true we will have a grand time here in August.

We would suggest that the committee have their track cindered. This would make a much better track of it and it would be rain proof. Doubtless the bicycle club would be willing to share some of the expense if they were allowed the free use of the track.
